

JOB OPENING
(Posted August 1, 2013)

DRILLING FIELD SUPERINTENDENT

Job Description:

Geotech Services, Inc., Cleveland, Ohio, is looking for an experienced Drilling Field Superintendent. Position requires company travel. Candidate will be responsible for managing drill crew - specifically drilling work that includes: soil nails, reinforced wet mix shotcrete for soil nail walls, rock anchors, soil anchors and micropiles using duplex drilling method. You will be responsible for leading a crew, reporting site activities and managing project progress from start to finish. Top candidates will ensure drilling projects are completed to our high standard of quality, on time and on budget. Must understand company safety standards and OSHA requirements. Must be able to plan projects, be organized, have good time management skills, able to positively motivate your crew and have pride in your work.

Job Responsibilities:

Communicate with customers, subcontractors and inspectors at the construction site, Deliver quality work. Ensure satisfied customers. Schedule and coordinate construction needs for all phases of construction. Maintain a safe and environmentally friendly work place for staff. Supervise, schedule and coordinate daily activities of construction crew. Ensure employees adhere to company policies.

Desired Skills and Experience:

Should have a minimum of 2 years field experience in rock & soil anchors, duplex drilling, micropiles and rock anchor testing. Must have a valid driver's license and a good driving record.

